Top 5 Reasons to Go on the Portugal Trip Spring 2026

Fun Fact: Alisha Sims spent her Spring Break touring Portugal. Here are her Top 5 reasons to join this unforgettable opportunity for adventure, culture, and connection!

1. Explore Historic Cities: Lisbon & Porto

Wander cobblestone streets, take in centuries-old architecture, admire the vibrant azulejos (ceramic tiles), and visit the striking Seven Ages of Man statue along Lisbon's waterfront—then snap photos of Portugal's stunning coastlines.

2. Taste the Flavours of Portugal

From pastéis de nata (custard tarts) to authentic seafood dishes, you'll experience one of Europe's most delicious cuisines. The Chinook Portugal Trip will also be experiencing a historical cultural "faido" dinner performance.

3. Visit UNESCO World Heritage Sites

Porto's historic Ribeira District is a UNESCO World Heritage Site full of colourful buildings and centuries-old charm. In Lisbon, explore the iconic hilltop São Jorge Castle for breathtaking views and a deep connection to Portugal's past. In nearby Cascais and Sintra, the tour will also be visiting beautiful Sintra Castle and visit the summer villa of royalty from times past.

4. Bond With Classmates and Make Lifelong Friends

Shared travel brings people together. You'll laugh, explore, and make memories with peers and new friends alike.

5. Learn Outside the Classroom

From history and art to geography and language, every moment of this trip connects to real-world learning.
